

Recruitment Poster: Staff

Participate in a study:
Capturing pandemic experiences in outdoor learning and applying lessons learned to support equitable access

The purpose of this study is to examine the experiences of educators and students who are teaching and learning outdoors to explore the factors that influence success and identify ways to help others become involved in outdoor learning.

To participate in this study, you must be:

- ✓ Staff working at a Canadian public school
- ✓ Involved in facilitating outdoor learning for students (K-8)
- ✓ Comfortable in the English language

You can choose to participate in an interview (1-hour) or a survey (20 minutes). All interviews and surveys will be completed online. Questions will be focused on your outdoor learning experiences, including successes and challenges and key lessons learned.

The interviews will be audio/video recorded through Zoom. Surveys will be completed online. Participation is voluntary.

Participants will be compensated with a gift card of their choice from President's Choice, Walmart or Indigo (40$ for interviews; 25$ for surveys)

This study has been cleared by the Carleton University Research Ethics Board B Clearance # (116021).

Please contact the researcher, Tanya Halsall, for more details on this study at tanyahalsall@cunet.carleton.ca.

This research has been cleared by Carleton University Research Ethics Board-B (Clearance # 116021).

Version 1, Sept. 8, 2021